OFFENDERS

Saturday night, Oct. 27 was Halloween hardcore night for New Orleans. The place was the Dream Pallace on Frenchman St.. 4 bands were on the ticket: NO MORE FUN(B.R.), GRAVEYARD RODEO(N.O.), NOT FOR SALE(Austin), and the OFFENDERS(Austin). What a night. N.M.F. went on first and got the momentum going. They thrashed. Next up was G.R.. They cranked out their usual line up as strong as ever. I still like the way they do "Anarchy in the U.K.". They finished their set which made way for Not For Sale. This is a band I have never seen or heard of before, but they sure are great. For a 3-piece band, they put out a heavy sound.

Finally it was the OFFENDERS. I've heard their album about 50 times and could probably hear it 50 more times and not get tired of it. This was the first time I've seen them, and I don't think I'll ever get tired of it. The band is made up of J.J. (vocals), Anthony Johnson (guitar), Mikey Donaldson (bass), and Pat Doyle (drums). Before the show, we were hangin' out with J.J. (not knowing who he was, of course). He's a skater too, so we definitely had a lot to talk about. Anyway, when the Offenders went on, the place exploded. Everyone was slamming their brain out and it was stage-dives galore. Offenders cranked hard on old tunes such as FIGHT BACK, WANTED BY AUTHORITY, and WE MUST REBEL. And they really blazed on a new song, I HATE MYSELF. They did their own version of an old song, "Keep me hangin' on" and also a funk song that had everybody skanking. One regret was what I think was a Motorhead song, (I can't tell you what that sounded like.). Besides that & a small fight, the show was a BLAST!

Recently, Dave LaRocca was in Louisiana touring with the Faction. We managed to tear him away from music long enough to take him to a ramp in Slidell. He left us with these.
